Dear Sir, TO "RECORD OF PHILATELY" SUBSCRIBERS.

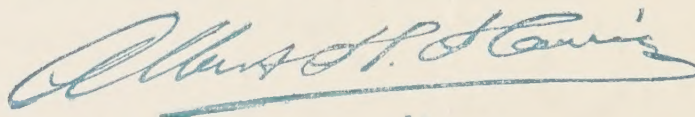

On taking over the "Record of Philately" we find that your subscription expired with the March issue which you have now received.

The extended utility of the combined journals will, I hope, merit your renewal subscription which you will observe is now reduced to 7/6d.

Anticipating this pleasure, may we ask you to indicate, when remitting, whether you would like your subscription to continue from the April number, or whether you would prefer it to be dated back to commence with the beginning of the volume which started in January, and of which seven issues have already appeared (one of which has already been sent you).

As the stock of back numbers is limited, your early instructions would be appreciated.

Yours faithfully,

Circulation Department.

N.B.- Copies of the issues of April 3 and 17 have been reserved for you, pending your remittance, as we do not want you to miss them. These contain the continuation of Mr. Hurt's articles.

N.B.—The Philatelic Magazine and The Philatelic Trader have the largest net sales and the lowest advertisement rates per thousand copies sold in their respective fields.

Gentlemen:

In reply to your letter of April 15th concerning subscription to the Philatelic Magazine, I desire to subscribe to this and a week ago sent over to Mr. Hurt 7.6. This he will probably transmit to you.

I desire to have the Philatelic Magazine start with the January number.

Very truly yours,

Curator
